

NFALA FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

APPLICATIONS DUE MAY 20, 2024

THE ROBIN MANGASER TIZON MEMORIAL LAW SCHOLARSHIP

The Robin Mangaser Tizon Memorial Law Scholarship is sponsored by the NFALA Foundation in collaboration with FALA New York.

Robin was a beloved wife, daughter, sister and proud Filipina-American lawyer. She was born the third of four daughters to immigrant parents who instilled in their children the value of education and service to one's community.

Throughout her life, Robin devoted herself to advocacy of many causes, including Filipino veterans' rights, adolescents with cancer, and immigrants' rights. She also had musical talent and a fine eye for design, enlivening any event with her singing, dancing, and keyboard skills.

After overcoming stage III ovarian cancer at the age of 23, Robin achieved her dream of becoming a lawyer, graduating from Rutgers School of Law-Camden in 2013 with a joint JD/MBA degree. Robin focused her practice on intellectual property law. She served as a valuable leader of NFALA and FALA New York where she found inspiring mentors and lifelong friendships.

Indeed, as one of the first members and original Co-Chair of the Public Relations Committee since FALA New York's inception, Robin was instrumental in establishing the FALA New York brand and lasting communications strategy. Throughout her long battle with cancer, Robin remained committed to her duties at FALA New York.

OVERVIEW

NFALA Foundation¹ scholarship awards are given to law students who demonstrate exceptional aptitude for the study of law and strong commitment to serve or contribute to the Filipino-American community as future leaders in the legal profession. The Robin Mangazer Tizon Memorial Law Scholarship was established to honor Robin's memory and support talented law students who embody her spirit and commitment to service.

For 2024, our scholarship recipient will receive a $2,000 stipend to support an internship or project that focuses on causes that Robin supported or in which she was significantly involved.

ELIGIBILITY & CRITERIA

NFALA Foundation scholarships are made available, on a competitive basis, to students who: a.) will be enrolled in a Juris Doctor (J.D.), Master of Laws (LL.M.), or Doctor of Juridical Science (S.J.D.) at an accredited U.S. law school for the 2024-2025 academic year, and b.) will be either interning for an organization or have begun work on a project (visual work, research or article) whose purpose aligns with the causes and work that Robin supported or that her family and friends have continued in her memory. Robin was a staunch supporter of the rights of immigrants, social justice, and service to the Filipino American community. She was involved in the music and creative arts communities. Her sisters and her friends continue to raise money to support research and raise awareness of ovarian cancer.

Fall 2024 first time law school enrollees should submit a statement from your law school certifying that you are a law degree candidate enrolled at least part-time.

INSTRUCTIONS

You may apply for the Robin Mangaser Tizon Memorial Law Scholarship by either: a.) submitting the application here (with Google sign-in) or b.) emailing a completed application along with supporting documents listed under Criteria, to: RobinMangaserTizonScholarship@gmail.com by 5:00 P.M. (Eastern) on May 20, 2024. Applications must be submitted in one PDF file with the title "Robin Mangaser Tizon Scholarship Application – [Applicant Name]" that consists of all application materials with the exception of any optional performance-related materials that require submission in a different format.

Your essay should be no longer than 500 words. Of all the parts of the application, your essay carries the greatest weight. Please emphasize any experience you have that shows your commitment to serving the Filipino-American community, as well as your need for financial assistance.

Please submit two letters of recommendation (recommendation letters for law school admission or other programs and positions are acceptable). It is not necessary to submit more than two recommendation letters. If you submit more than two letters, the committee may only review the first two letters received. Letters may be sealed or unsealed and sent directly by the recommender or by the applicant. An application is not excluded from consideration if no letter of recommendation is provided, though it is highly recommended.

Creative submissions are optional only, but provide the applicant an opportunity to showcase creative talents. Applicants may either a) submit a link to RobinMangaserTizonScholarship@gmail.com with the content showcasing the applicant's creative talents and provide any necessary permissions to view, or b) request an FTP link via that email for the applicant to upload materials. All creative works must be the applicant's original work or composition, with recordings of performances or music compositions being no longer than five minutes and a maximum of 5 images (.jpg, .png, etc.) or original written works (maximum of 500 words).

Please email RobinMangaserTizonScholarship@gmail.com with any questions.
